

2018 BUS SERVICE TIMETABLES

(as at December 2017)

Trinity College co-ordinates private bus companies who provide travel to and from school for students. Please contact the appropriate bus company for inquiries about the routes, timetables, costs and booking a seat. Payment is to be made directly to the bus company. If your circumstances change and you are no longer utilising the bus services can you please advise your bus provider.

Please phone us to book your children on the required route. If you have any queries or suggestions regarding the routes please contact us so that we can see if we can make any alterations that would suit most people.

Please contact Link SA for prices.

Students below Year 4 will not be let off the bus without someone being there to meet them. If for some unforeseen reason you cannot be there, we will keep the children on the bus and contact you. If you require your child/children to be let off the bus we would like you to let us know in writing.

DECD BUS SERVICE

A service is offered by DECD for eligible* secondary students only, to Gawler & District College.

*For eligibility to use the DECD bus, students must live within the Gawler catchment area (excluding Roseworthy and Wasley townships) and reside 5km or more from the nearest government secondary school.

The application form is available from the Central Administration office, Trinity College Gawler. Forms (and payment) should be returned to Central Administration. The form is then sent to Gawler & District College who will contact the family.

This form is to be filled in EVERY year for each individual student catching the bus.

Cost: $78.20 plus $10.00 admin fee. Total cost $88.20 for each student (per year) catching the bus.

Link SA manages the 'connector' bus that runs students from Gawler & District College to Trinity College. Payment for this service is made directly to Link SA.
