2022 A Masquerade Party A Grand Success

The 2022 A Masquerade Party Foundation Dinner was held on Friday 29 July in the Attenborough Room at the Adelaide Zoo.

Pre-dinner drinks were served as guests took their first look at the wide selection of auction items on offer before being seated for the Acknowledgement of Country and Grace presented by College Vice Captain Isabella Mondello. Guests were then entertained by Year 6 student Dakota Schwab who opened the festivities with a performance of Walking on Sunshine by Katrina and the Waves.

Head of Trinity College, Nick Hatley then took to the stage and officially welcomed all guests and treated the audience to designs of the new Trinity Roseworthy school that will open in 2024 as well as launched the Foundation's Buy-a-Chair Campaign for the new Trinity College Performing Arts Theatre. Foundation Chair Mr David Russell then thanked everyone for their attendance and made special mention of our valued corporate sponsors. He also reminded guests that all funds raised by this event go directly to help students of Trinity excel. The Chair then introduced the guest speaker Year 11 student Trent Tattoli, the current beneficiary of the Foundation General Excellence Scholarship. Trent spoke with passion about his love of learning and how the scholarship has afforded him many opportunities for which he is extremely grateful. Year 12 student Daniel Hurst then entertained all with a clarinet solo performance of A Night in Tunisia by Charlie Parker and Dizzy Gillespie.

After the formalities and entertainment guests enjoyed a sumptuous dinner and the opportunity to place a bid for one or more of the over 50 donated items to help raise money to support the Foundation. The major auction item up for grabs was the Triple M Bunker Experience for 10 people at the Adelaide Crows v North Melbourne game. Other items included a round of golf for four people plus two electric buggies, a Magnum of Hentley Farm Clos Shiraz, a Microsoft Surface Laptop GO, two tickets to the opening night of State Opera La Traviata and a Hawthorn Guernsey autographed by John Platten.
