8. PARENT/GUARDIAN DECLARATION

Universities offer a fully adult learning environment and, while there are many support services, universities do not take on the same responsibilities of care that schools assume under the Teachers' Registration and Standards Act and other legislation. Universities rely upon the student's parents/guardians and school to make a judgment as to whether the student will adapt to part-time involvement in university life and for the parents/guardians to explicitly accept any risks that may be involved in participation in the University Extension Studies Program.

I understand that my child will be enrolled in university study as a secondary school student, and that additional fees may apply, that academic and that pastoral support will be provided by the home school. I understand that the University offers a fully adult learning environment. I accept any risks that may be involved in my child's participation in the University Extension Studies Program.

I authorise Flinders University to release to other educational institutions details of my child's enrolment and academic record.

I understand that Flinders University may disclose the personal information provided in this application to the Department of Education and that the Department of Education will collect and store my personal information in the Higher Education Information Management System.

The Broadcasting Services Amendment (on-Line Services) Act 1999, states that "on-line accounts are not provided to children without the permission of a parent or responsible adult" and defines children as being under 18 years of age.

To ensure compliance with this Act the University needs to restrict general Internet access by those students who are not yet 18 years of age. Such restrictions may be lifted with the consent of a parent or a responsible adult.

I being the parent, guardian or person responsible for the wellbeing of the student named in this application hereby give my consent for the opening of an Internet Access Account for the student's use in their university studies. I am aware that in doing so this student will have unrestricted access to the Internet through facilities and services offered by Flinders University.

I give my approval for my child named in this application to enrol as a non-award student at Flinders University.
